

Some of the most
accommodating restaurants
in Atlanta are only an elevator ride away.

In all these Atlanta hotels, you'll find fine restaurants dedicated to making everyone feel welcome.

They're all participants in The Accommodation Program, which means they welcome non-smokers and smokers in special areas set aside with their comfort in mind.

So come on up. Or down. They'll go out of their way so you don't have to.
